Invitational Summer Institute

Summer, 2009

Date June 22-July 23, 2009

4 days/week for 5 weeks, 9:00 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

to be held on the campus of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

Final application deadline: February 20, 2009.

Interviews scheduled March 7, 2009.

Notification of acceptance March 13, 2009.

Required Pre-conference Institute April 25, 2009

Participants will earn 6 graduate credits in Curriculum and Instruction.

- 5 scholarships available for teachers in their induction years (1-3 years) paying full tuition for 6 graduate credits
- 15 scholarships paying approximately 60% tuition cost for 6 graduate credits

Participants will engage in extensive writing experiences and reflect on their own writing, will be acknowledged for their own expertise in the teaching of writing, and will become leaders in the area of writing by conducting in-service presentations.

The Summer Institute follows the basic assumptions of the National Writing Project:

- Successful practicing teachers are the best teachers of other teachers.
- Summer Institutes involve teachers from all levels of instruction, elementary through university as well as teachers from across the disciplines.
- Writing is as fundamental to learning in science, in mathematics, and in history as it is in English and the language arts.
- Teachers of writing must also write.

Participants will become members of an elite cadre of Teacher Consultants throughout the nation.
